SCHEDULE

The SPR 2000 meeting begins on Wednesday, October 18 with a Preconference workshop, and an evening reception from 5:30pm to 7:30pm in the Pavilion Ballroom. Registration will be located in the Garden Room foyer, and will be open from 4:00pm to 8:00pm on Wednesday and from 8:00am to 11:30am on Thursday. The scientific program begins at 9:00am on Thursday, October 19, and concludes at noon on Sunday, October 22. The program includes invited addresses, symposia, poster sessions, special interest lunches and dinners, and extends into the evening on Thursday and Saturday.

PRECONFERENCE WORKSHOP

A Preconference Workshop on Functional Magnetic Resonance Imaging, will be held on October 18 from 8am to 5:30pm in the Crystal Ballroom. Speakers will include Peter Bandettini (NIH), Rick Buxton (UCSD), Robert Savoy (Rowland Institute), and Thomas Zeffiro (Georgetown), and will cover topics from NMR physics to experimental design and data analysis. For more information see enclosed flyer.

SYMPOSIA

A variety of symposia addressing contemporary topics in basic and applied psychophysiology will be offered. Details of these events will become available later this summer, and will be posted on SPR's web site (<http://www.sprweb.org>).

SPECIAL INTEREST LUNCHEAS AND DINNERS

As in previous years, small-group lunch and dinner sessions will be arranged to provide an informal setting for people to meet and share common interests. Information on topics, hosts, dates, and times for each lunch and dinner will be included in the packet of materials sent to SPR members during the summer and will be posted on SPR's web site (<http://www.sprweb.org>). If you would like to host a lunch or dinner, please contact Patricia Deldin (pdeldin@wjh.harvard.edu).

MEETING SITE

San Diego is the birthplace of California. Portuguese explorer Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo landed in what is now San Diego Bay and claimed the area for Spain 458 years ago in 1542. In 1769, Father Junipero Serra established the Mission San Diego de Alcalá, a primary link in his chain of 21 missions that later extended to Northern California. Originally populated by Native Americans, the area has been governed by the Spanish, Mexicans, and (since 1846) the United States.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

A recent restoration has preserved the US Grant Hotel's legendary beauty and superb craftsmanship. The Hotel is located in the heart of downtown San Diego. We have secured a discounted room rate of $160 for single and $180 for double plus tax per night. Triple and quadruple occupancy are available upon request: Members (especially students) are encouraged to make use of the Message Board on the SPR web site (<http://www.sprweb.org>) to arrange for roommates for the conference. This special rate is effective from October 14 through 25 for those of you who wish to extend your stay in San Diego.

The rate is available only until September 8, 2000, so make your reservations without delay! Reservations made after that date will be made on a space and rate available basis only. (If the block of rooms reserved for SPR sells out, then there is no space available). To make your hotel reservations, please complete the enclosed hotel form and return it directly to the US Grant (do not send it to the SPR office). Or, if you prefer to make your reservation by telephone, please call 1-619-232-3121, and be sure to identify yourself as an SPR meeting attendee.

REGISTRATION

You must register for the convention in order to receive your badge which is required for admittance to all sessions and events. To preregister, please complete and return the enclosed preregistration form to SPR, Department 129, Washington, DC, USA 20005-4907. Or, if you are paying via credit card, you may fax your completed registration form to 202-783-2083. Individuals who register before September 8 will qualify for the reduced advance registration fees; late or on-site registrants will pay slightly higher fees. Registration questions should be directed to Erika Davis of the SPR Office at 202-393-4810 or spr@aps.washington.us
